Important notes

- If you've changed your name and you're providing proof of your new name, you will need to provide a marriage certificate or deed poll or decree absolute document from the court
- If you are acting under Power of Attorney or Court of Protection you must provide identification for both yourself and any other signatories as well as the Power of Attorney document itself
- If you are acting as a signatory on a child's account, you and any other signatories must provide identification
- Each solicitor acting on behalf of clients must provide a practising certificate as evidence of identity for themselves and a letter on their headed paper, confirming the name and address of the client. We insist on at least two solicitors acting as signatories
- We will retain a copy of your documents in order to satisfy Anti-Money Laundering regulations
- Each document provided must be from a different source, for example we will not accept two documents from the DWP to verify both name and address
- Copy documents will only be accepted if they are officially certified by a solicitor, a registered accountant, a bank official or an individual regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority and Prudential Regulation Authority. The copy documents must be within the date parameters shown in the table above. The wording must state "I certify that this is a true copy of the original document which I have witnessed" and must include the certifier's name, address, position, employer or firm, with a signature and date
- We will not accept the following documents in any circumstances:
  - Mobile phone, satellite and broadband bills
  - TV Licenses
  - Documents printed from the internet or a personal computer
  - Out of date documents
  - Unsigned passports or driving licenses
  - P45s and P60s
  - Photo-card licenses where the photograph has become invalid (photographs are valid for 10 years only)
  - Counterpart to the photo card driving license.
